Dear Sir,

I acknowledge receipt of your letter of 25 June 2004 containing your observations in reply to those of the Government on the above application.

These observations have been sent to the Government for information.

I should be grateful if you would let me know by 30 July 2004 whether, if the Court requires any further observations before deciding on the admissibility of the case, you would prefer to submit such observations in writing or at an oral hearing. Should an oral hearing be preferred, the reasons should be briefly indicated. The Court will then decide in accordance with Rule 54 § 3 of its Rules.

Yours faithfully,
